Call to Worship (Inspired by Hebrews 10:19-25) Matt McMahon, Confirmation Student

Leader: We gather together to worship, knowing that God is already here among us;
knowing that there is nothing that separates us
from the presence of our Lord.

People: Wherever we are, wherever we go, God is near.

Leader: So let us enter into this service of worship with confidence and hope,

People: knowing that God is already with us and stands eager to meet us and bless us with grace and love.

Gathering Hymn "Come! Live in the Light!" No. 749

Prayer of Confession (Written by Rev. Dr. Chip Hardwick)

Lord Jesus Christ, we call you Lord, yet it is too easy for us to worship other things, other activities, other relationships, other gods. You tell us we cannot serve two masters, Yet we spend more time focusing our energies elsewhere, diverting our time, our energy, our money, our attention away from you.

Forgive us, gracious savior, when our hearts are led astray, when we serve other gods and worship them. Strengthen us to set our faces toward Jerusalem, to take up our cross and follow you. We pray this, counting on your grace. Amen.

Lenten Congregational Response “Create in Me a Clean Heart, O God” (Verse1) No. 423

Create in me a clean heart, O God;
Create in me a clean heart, O God;
Create in me a clean heart, O God,
and renew a right spirit within me.

President of the Presbyterian Association on Science, Technology, and the Christian Faith

The Henry and Annabel Larzelere Memorial Lecture Series is being established in 2017 to honor their interest in continuing education on topics of international interest and theological thought. Henry and Annabel moved to East Lansing in 1938 where Henry was a new faculty member in the college of Agriculture at MSU. They promptly joined The Peoples Church and became deeply involved in the church community as well as in greater Lansing where they were active in a great variety of civic activities. Henry and Annabel were world travelers who were always building bridges of hope and understanding. Our desire is that these lectures will inspire and strengthen us to serve with compassionate love as we strive to build a more just and peaceful world.
